Comment Of The Day

in Algeria

THE Algerians have been A fighting the French for nearly six years. The price of the fight has been enormous with casualties on both sides amounting to less than 150,000 persons.

The insurrectionist leaders' willingness to send a delegation to meet the French President and discuss settlement terms is the most welcome news the Western allies have received for a long time. Both General de Gaulle and the Algerians have shown tremendous courage in deciding to get down to business at a table instead of blasting away with guns.

'Farewell presents to s million Governors not corrupt

Former Governors and Civil Servants had received farewell presents from the public for what they had done for the Colony, and those gifts had not been held as corrupt, Mr Patrick Yu, Counsel for Abdul Aziz Rumjahn, submitted in the Victoria District Court this morning.

Counsel held that alleged offers of gifts by Rumjahn to Mr Hilary D. Miller, District Officer in the New Territories Administration, could not held as corrupt either. After Mr G. R. Sneath Crown Counsel, had made final submissions for the prosecution, Judge W. F. Pickering reserved judgment until Friday morning. Mr Yu submitted in his closing address this morning, that evidence had shown there was absolutely no need for Rumjahn to offer Mr Miller anything. Mr Sneath submitted throughout the recognitions Mr Miller was transmitting offers which were increasingly more favourable to Mayor Mills, and that was justified by changes of Government policy and the increasing value of industrial land so that from the outset there would appear to be no real motive for the accused to bribe Mr Miller provided that Rumlaha was trware of these factors operating in Mr Miller's mind.

Rewards intended

"However," Mr Sneath said, "if your Honour accepts the evidence of Mr Miller to the effect that these offers were in fact made, then in my submission they could not have been anything else but corrupt

He added that it was abundantly clear that such offers were intended to be accepted as rewards for what Mr Milier had done in the Mayar Mills case.

Mr Sneath pointed out that offers of payment were very different from actual cash payment. "We don't know what sum of money the accused would in fact have put in the envelope and thrown out by Mi Miller's house had he gone through with the dealings.

"What we can legitimately surmise is that Mr Miller would have been in no position to force the payment of the $80,000. When one makes a corrupt offer, one can name any figure he Content?

Mr Sneath said Mr Sze Chautung of the Mayar Mills had said. Rumjahn's commission would amount to $100,000. "Perhaps Rumjahn would have been content to make $20,000, having paid Mr Miller $80,000."

Mr Sneath said he had suggrated to Rumjahn that the Mayar Mills case was simply an ceeasion which Rumjahn would find useful for corrupting Mr Miller and for compromising him utterly.

"That is a suggestion that really gives all the motive," Mr Sneath said.

Mr Sneath said such an offer would provide-"to use Rumjahn's own words" - a "perfect veil" for corrupting Mr. Miller. He submitted that these offers could not have been made other than for corrupt rewards.

No complaint

Mr Sneath referred to the fact that Rumjahn had not made any complaint after he had been thrown out of Mr Miller's

"If he was an innocent man, why did he not take steps to put right the misunderstanding or the gross injustice to him, he asked.

Rumjahn, 56-year-old broker, of 31 Lee Garden Road, third floor, faces four cirruption charges.

He is alleged to have corruptly offered $50,000 to Mr Miller on August 7 last year. The money was the proceeds of the sale of 10,000 equare feet of land at $5 per square foot which was offered on eccount of Mr Miller showing favour in the matter of conversion of certain agricultural land owned by Mayar Silk Mills (HK) Ltd., in Tsun Wan. He was also alleged to have corruptly offered $30,000 to Mr Miller on September 30 and November 23. A fourth charge alleged Rumjahn had corruptly offered Mr Miller 50 cents per square foot in respect of about 250,000 square feet of land to be regranted to Messrs T. O. Wong and Co. Ltd., as a reward for or on account of Mr Miller Engwir I fatour in the matter of conversion of the land.

Kuala Lumpur, June 20. The anti-graft drive by the Federation Government is gaining momentum as more and more information is being received from members of the public.

This was stated by Tuan Syed Abdul Rahman, director of th Anti-Corruption section of the Prime Minister's department.

"The response to our appeal is quite encouraging. More and more people are now writing to us with information on corruption," he said.

"I am quite satisfied with the progress we are making now."

300 TIPS

Since the section was set up in June last year, about 300 tips have come in from the public.

Of these, about 140 reports of bregularities were found to be substantially true. Detailed investigations were carried out immediately on receipt of information;

Tuan Syed Abdul Rahman said he would make surprise visits to Government offices and see things for himself.

This, he said, was part of his Countess Victoria Castel- plan to combat corruption.

GUINEA LAND

TN this Guinea Republic of 3,000,000 Africans who chose freedom from France the songs of jubilation have been hushed. They were hushed by a stern call from Marxist President Sekou Toure for "confidence and vigilance."

Here in the sweltering capital of Conakry, as the rain lashes juicy green mangoes from the trees, there is talk today of expulsion, arrests, torture, and available, with names-19 condemmed to death, one Frenchman sentenced to 20 another to 15 years, and 21 Guineans to five years each. Ten released.

But - and I have President Sekou Toure's own word for it-more than 100 people have been arrested.

Suspicion

There has been no mention of the other 50 or more who were interrogated and not released. All were arrested on suspicion of plotting with the French to overthrow the Government after arms were found along the borders of neighbouring Schegul and the Ivory Coast.

The plot-of some kind and by someone-has been proved. The arms-including Mauser guns, grenades, explosives, emmunition, pistols, Bren guns, and Sten guns - are now on show near the railway yard in Conakry. Looking on with smiles are 200 Communist advisers and technicians (Russians, Czechs, Chinese, Poles, Hungarians, and East Germans) who have moved into this impoverished West African land of Guinea which is the focal point for Communist penetration into Africa. Six Czechs are attached to Departments. They are ready Pierre Rossignol. He got a 20- coshier at the Bank of Guinea ballet year sentence for owning a radio in

Some people talk of the magic of Monarchy, a quality which would be tarnished by the light of common day.

They are wrong, Monarchy depends on respect, not on magic. It is an institution of good sense, not of mystery. Nothing can "strengthen" the Monarchy more than for a Princess to marry a commoner and make a success

BUENO AND MARIA DARLENE HARD OPEN TITLE WITH IMPRESSIVE

London, June 21.

Defending champion Maria Bueno, of Brazil, and American Darlene Hard, the "Big Two" in the women's singles at Wimbledon this year, opened their challenge with convincing wins today on the traditional "Ladies' Day" of the lawn tennis championships here.

In sparkling sunshine, the slim 20-year-old Brazilian stylist combined grace with power to overcome Belgian champion Christianne Mercelis 6-3, 6-2 in 46 minutes.

24-year-old Miss Hard from Montebello, California, defeated fault on her first match point, 6-1. British international Anne Shilcock, 6-1, 6-4 in '39 attempt.

Both Miss Bueno and Miss Hard had received firstround byes, so their wins put them into the third round.

Dynamic play

Miss Bueno, whose dynamic play won her both the Wimbledon and United States crowns last year, has shown in-and-out form so far this season. But in the opening set today she looked most impressive on the centre-court turi, flery and fast in the present heatwave conditions.
